Hello. This is part 2 of my incredibly long document about @MrTLexify grooming me and abusing me. In this document, I show the proof of Lex putting his hands on me, twice, which is also confirmed by Lex in his document. I debunk all of Lex's lies. I also give background context because Lex made sure to not include any.

Picking up where I left off… I had just turned 18 years old and Lex spent it with me.

Now that I had reached 18 years old, Lex was no longer afraid to share our relationship; and I still had no realizations that I had been groomed. I'm now almost 3 years into my relationship with Lex; I was addicted to weed, mental health was the worst it's ever been, my grades were declining, my social life was inconsistent, and I was over-sexualizing myself for Lex's pleasure. Every aspect needed to keep me relying on Lex. Since I spent a lot of my time on the phone with Lex, I didn't realize that my high school grades were tarnished. I ended up receiving professional help from a psychiatrist, at my high school, because of how mentally impacted I was feeling by Lex in my life. I never told my psychiatrist about my relationship with Lex, because I knew it was wrong and I knew it was the problem; I just didn't want to admit it. Lex had groomed me into keeping quiet about the relationship for so long, that even when I was of age, I still didn't post about us often.

Despite the negative impact Lex was having on my life, I continued dating him. He seemed like the only person who was there for me at times and he was my best friend. After my 18th birthday, Lex came down again to California for his birthday. During this trip, I went through Lex's phone while he was asleep and found out he was texting multiple girls, trying to take any of them out, but having no luck. I confronted Lex about it and broke up with him that day. Which is what caused me to post this Instagram post; the reason for all of this in the first place.

In this incredibly edited Instagram post, I talk about how I found out my boyfriend was cheating on me, but never tagged him. I also added the length of our relationship as a cry for help.

Despite my attempts at trying to leave Lex, I would go back to him over and over. I was emotionally connected to Lex and, at this time, would never convict him for what he did to me. If we argued, I would always forgive him. I would feel pity for Lex if he tried to use suicidal ideation against me for wanting to leave him.

This is something that is also known as Stockholm Syndrome. It's where a hostage forms a psychological bond with their captors. I was captured by Lex for being a young fan, and a virgin. I was attached to my abuser. Even if he verbally abused me, I still loved him and wanted to give my best friend the benefit of the doubt.

From me being 18 years old, to me being 20 years old, Lex and I dated like a normal “legal” couple. Still, the grooming aspects were there in forms of kinks and Lex was providing me a lot in my life.

During the year 2021, Lex came down to California and rented out an airbnb for close to 3 months. From January 2021 to March 2021. This is where Lex first became physically abusive.

The photo where Lex claims I bit him with malicious intent, happened during this trip. Lex and I were play-wrestling in a dark room. Lex got too aggressive with me, and scared me with the way he was contorting my body. I told Lex to stop and accidentally bit him out of fear. Afterwards, we turned on the lights and quickly applied bandaids on him. I apologized to Lex and expressed to him that I thought he was going to hurt me. Lex also apologized to me for scaring me.

For reference, Lex is 6’1 and at the time weighed 250lbs. I am 5’5 and at the time weighed 110lbs.

You can see in the image above, that Lex has an almost healed cut mark on his cheek. We continued to live together in the airbnb after that night because it wasn't an actual fight, like Lex is trying to frame it.

No fight will ever compare to the one we had the night of March 14th, 2021. This was the night Lex first choked me; by my neck, with his bare hands.

On March 14th, 2021, Lex and I were going at it verbally. I was rolling a joint on a tray, and sitting down on the couch of the airbnb. Lex was getting heated with me and I was calmly rolling up my joint. During the argument, Lex stops midsentence and goes "and that's MY weed! I paid for that!" He lunged forward to me, and proceeded to try to take the tray out of my hands. He fights with me for about 5 seconds, before the tray inevitably breaks. I threw the broken tray at Lex's back out of self defense, which caused Lex to turn around and tackle me to the ground.

My 6'1 boyfriend, Lex Adrian Iwan, tackled me to the ground, sat on top of me, and put both of his hands around my neck. I will never forget the look in Lex's eyes as he spent multiple seconds choking me out. My vision got blurry, and I was starting to lose my ability to breathe. I closed my eyes for a moment, and that's when Lex got off of me.

I don't have images of my bruised neck. I only have two videos from the night it happened, recording myself crying, and trying to process the fact that my boyfriend had just put his hands on me. I also have multiple witnesses who saw me crying that night, and I had expressed to them that I was just physically abused by my boyfriend.

Once Lex left back home to Canada, our relationship was hanging on by a thread. I was no longer comfortable with the man who was once my best friend. Because of this, Lex would send me flowers, attached love letters, as a way to try to get my forgiveness. Below are some images of a love letter that Lex wrote to me, apologizing for the fact that he choked me.

work separately like that but this is something I need to improve on.

I sorry ☹ :

First off, Dada want to apologize for the flowers on this image not being pink. I tried for hours looking for a sexy cutie background for my love letter to luvbug but I could not find it and I can't change the colours on them to make them look pink so dada apologize in advance, my sunshine girl. Second off, you will be receiving an array of gifts exclusively from your dada that hopefully mirror the same thought that you put in towards the previous care packages you've sent me so I hope that you recognize the thought and love I put into it at every corner ☹. I want you to be fully happy and to be forgiven so you realize I am not the same person who did those terrible things to you ☹. Enough about dada because that is my main problem here, being too selfish and not being considerate enough about my baby girl's feelings. I know this whole problem started from the cartoon and I want you to know that I will NEVER put you below anything like that ever again. It is not important and valuable as what you mean to me because you are my shining light girl, my cheep cheep.

I do want to marry you and I don't want you to think that I would ever undervalue like that because you're my precious kind girl. Your aspirations matter to me and I want you to know that I will help you become the YouTuber that you want to be. I do not want you to get your own life because I want to be apart of it. I am stupid for saying that and I realize that I am only ever building worse trauma for you and that makes me more mad that you can think. I do not want you at the point of explosion ever and it makes me sad that I put you through that especially egging you on by saying that it was because of bpd. Please forgive me for that because I was not thinking clearly and I will accept any punishment you have of me. Dada want to provide for my baby ☹. I am also sorry for leaving you alone and allowing these feelings to fester. I need to stop doing that and confront my problems with you head on. I just need space sometimes to cool off and I hate that we

Dada promise □ :

Dada promises from here on out to listen to my good minx girl and provide when needed. Dada will improve the Minecraft world and make sure that you love it just as much as you used to love dada (I am building a surprise on it right now that I think you will really like!). Dada promises to be patient with my baby girl and to fully realize and communicate the problem without causing more drama. Dada promises to not talk with attitude and instead talk out of the loving nature of my heart. Dada promises not to be aggressive anymore. Dada promises when the travel ban is over, for you to be with your dada for an extended period of time. Dada promises to have fun like we did in the past where we would have a date night and kiss and have fun playing or doing whatever we want. Dada promises to include and suggest new things are innovative and different for when we get stuck in a routine. And above all, Dada promises to make sure that I keep up with the reputation you once adored me for.

Testimonial: I never want to make you sad and I am sorry for being frustrated and neglecting the fact that I have not been able to live up to my past mistakes. You keep telling me to change and I keep failing to listen and that's how I believe you achieve your greatest missteps in life. I will never forgive myself for choking you and the fact that you still put up with me and still want this relationship truly tells me that you are the love of my life. Only the love of my life would do something like that to me and I need to honor your decision and be the happy dada's boy you always wanted me to be. I love you.

For the future :3

I love when you are vocal to me and it makes me beyond happy. I will do my best to include you in my life and to make sure I do weight training and fasting in order to be the prettiest boy for you. I am sorry that I am unable to deliver on that end and it makes me upset that you put in so much effort and I am not. That changes right now and I will update you on all of my differences in order to ensure in your mind that I am a man suitable for you. I do not want to be lumped in with the rest of the shitty men in your life and I want to prove to you that I am not like that. I never want to be like that, I want to be your dada. I will give you the life you have always wanted and I will make sure that you will never miss out. Even if the first part of your life is bad, you've found your true family with dada and you will be my child forever. I love you baby; will you forgive me?

Lex signs the bottom of these letters, using his company name, Edit.it. And once again, Lex is using the words like “daddy” and “dada” to refer to himself because, even though I am 20 years old, and he is 23 years old, he has successfully groomed me into implementing his kinks into our daily lives. He even makes sure to mention that I will “be (his) child forever” because he liked me more when I was younger.

Lex also makes sure to reinforce his initial grooming by telling me he will continue to provide for me.

The image above shows the second love letter Lex sent me, apologizing for choking me. I had told Lex multiple times that I wanted to break up with him because of that fact that he choked me; Lex damaging my mental health was another thing that I confronted him about, which is why he apologized for that too.

Of course, my story just doesn't end there. I don't free myself from Lex. I let him manipulate me back into the relationship by letting him buy me my dream art tablet. He knew that if he bought me something, I would be more inclined to forgive him; along with whatever love bombing tactics he used on me. The combination of Lex sending me flowers to my doorstep, buying me an art tablet, and texting me sweet nothings, convinced me that Lex loved me again.

After that, Lex decided it was time for him to move to California, without a VISA. Meaning, he could only stay in America for 3 months out of the year. This is when my relationship with Lex officially started crumbling. We would argue everyday, he was consuming a lot of porn even though he was living with me which made me consider if I was enough for him, and he didn't let me do anything of substance for myself.

We were a public couple though, and publicly, things looked great. We streamed on Twitch together and he even helped me start streaming on my own.

I first found out that Lex was STILL cheating on me, when someone DMed me on Instagram, February 7th, 2023, saying Lex was currently DMing a girl who was “barely legal.”

When I received this DM, I was furious. I knew Lex was trying to do what he did to me, to another teen girl. I immediately confronted Lex about it and told him that I knew he was texting young girls. I just truly didn't know how bad he was getting.

It wasn't until Lex came back down to California in June 2023, I went through Lex's phone as he was asleep, again, and found out he had been texting other young girls.

Here is an image of Lex wishing a girl a "happy 18th birthday"... How he knew her before her 18th birthday is something I'm uncertain of. Lex is 24 years old in these texts.

As I continued going through Lex's phone, I found more young girls he was communicating inappropriately with. He was finding them through dating apps as well, which tells you the age of the girl. Lex was using his Bumble profile strategically, making sure that his bio was about him being a famous Youtuber.

Lex was also telling these young girls off dating apps that he lived in Vancouver and he would meet them there, when he actually lives in his mom's basement. Lex also lured the young girls by telling them he'd buy them things they wanted if they dated him.

Here is a video that Lex sent of himself, to an 18 year old girl, as verification when she asked him if Lex was really the "Youtuber with over 2 million subscribers." The girl asked Lex to put his thumb on his chin as verification.

Along with the texts Lex sent the 18 year old girl on Bumble. For the sake of her privacy, I am hiding her information as well as what she says. These texts prove that Lex was trying to repeat his history after grooming me. He is talking to this young girl in the exact ways he would talk to me.

After that, I found out Lex was buying a PLETHORA of Onlyfans, Fansly, and other third party porn websites. I knew Lex had struggled with porn addiction all his life, which is why he was a chronic cheater, but I didn't know it was this bad. Hundreds of thousands of dollars a month was being spent on Onlyfans, by Lex; the self proclaimed Christian. Lex was specifically buying Onlyfans from accounts that advertised themselves as “freshly 18 years old” which was very painful to find out. The images below are blurry, but they are of the same night I went through Lex’s phone.

Digging deeper into his phone, I found out he was bookmarking anti-trans and anti-LGBTQ+ propaganda. This broke my heart because I had spent years trying to educate Lex properly, and before he wasn't so openly transphobic or homophobic. He even tried to manipulate me over “theDon” stuff that happened in his past; telling me he supposedly didn't condone whatever theDon said in Lex’s discord. Now I know that theDon was led on by Lex into believing that Lex was a safe space for bigotry and hate. Even after the drama with theDon died down publicly, Lex was still working with him and letting Don edit for Lex, behind the scenes.

I would never date someone who doesn't share the same beliefs as me.

What's ironic about the image below is that it talks about how trans people are statistically proven to be pedophiles, yet Lex is a pedophile and has proven to have pedophilic tendencies.

I also found a tweet that Lex had bookmarked of myself; tweeting about how I'd start Onlyfans as a joke. Lex told me he bookmarked this so that he can say "I told you so" to me… implying that Onlyfans was bad. This proves to me that Lex was hating on me since before we officially broke up. Lex had ill intentions for me. Lex had a hate boner for me, yet would come back and beg for me when I tried to leave.

After I went through Lex's phone, I confronted him and woke him up, telling him how wrong he was for going after more young girls. I repeatedly asked Lex if I was not young enough anymore. Lex angrily woke up, pounced me again for the second time in my life, and hung my head off the edge of the bed. Again, he wrapped his hands around my bare neck. This time Lex shouted out, "IM GOING TO KILL YOU!" The only way I got Lex off of me, was by yelling in between breaths that my phone was somewhere recording him choking me. Lex immediately got off me when he heard that he was being recorded.

Unfortunately, my phone wasn't recording us. I only said it because I knew It was the only way he would get off me. Even though I do not have a video of this night, Lex confirms this in his Google Doc by saying I "threatened" him with a video of him choking me. Lex, you threatened my life.

This is another night I will never forget. I regret not filing a police report the night this happened. I regret not calling the police to help this night.

Between Lex choking me for the first time, and Lex moving to California for 2022, is when the text Snapchat convo that Lex post publicly took place. Lex is trying to make it seem like he is the one being abused over Snapchat, when the reality is that Lex knew he fucked up by choking me, and Lex knew I was breaking up with him because he choked me.

Lex looks very passive in those texts and apologizes to me, because he is aware of his past mistakes. I was finally breaking away from the years of abuse and manipulation from Lex. Lex even admitted in his document that he choked me twice; confirming my current timeline.

The next morning, I woke up with this bruise on my leg from Lex. He had put his weight on my leg and bruised it when he was choking me.

Now in this next segment of my document, I'd like to address some of the claims that Lex is making towards me. Lex is trying to say that I extorted him, but between him and I, he will say it fueled his sexual fantasies. Lex even admitted in his own “evidence” that he was my paypig. Apart of the paypig kink play is humiliation.

Deflecting is wild. Well I hope you sort yourself out. I respond to you with love and you respond to me with hate. It is so exhausting to talk to you. My mom has standards for her son. You would too if you had a kid. Wow I said that because you were pissing me off so hard that you could squeeze that insult out of me. Is that what will make you feel validated? That's all women want, validate me. Validate my wrong actions. Validate me. You're fucking up your life Reagan. Wake up and fix it.

my life got fucked up when you groomed me when i was a minor lex

After a few months of bickering back and fourth, Lex stopped paying my rent and stopped communicating with me on September 2023. Lex was paying my rent as a form of hush money for me to not “expose” him, but after Lex sent me a cease and desist to silence me, he stopped.

I became incredibly worrisome because for the first time in my life, I was separated from Lex. For the first time since I was 15 years old, I was separated from Lex. This was the man who I was conditioned into thinking I was going to marry. Lex put me in his will when I was 19 years old, and told me that nothing of his would go to his family; but all of it would go to me.

Once Lex sent me the cease and desist, Lex had to go through the process of updating his will to include his mother and sister.

After being with him, and arguing with him, and putting up with him for 8 years; Lex finally abandoned me. All because I would not stop asking him about why he would message girls younger than me. I kept asking Lex if I was not enough for him. If 15 year old me was not enough for him. It was very hard for me to admit to myself that I got groomed by an actual pedophile. It was hard for me to admit that I was expiring to Lex because I was getting older.

It was like I was watching him repeat his own history. To me, it was like Lex knew that he could do what he did to me, to another girl. He thinks that because I stayed quiet so well, and that because I was such an obedient pet of his, that he could get away with it again. It made me sick to think about.

Here are images of when Lex started texting my mom out of fear. Lex was trying to scare my mom as a tactic to silence me and to prevent me from talking about this publicly. Here are some of the messages Lex sent my mom, that he purposefully left out of his document.

Lex

Nothing happened. We had a relationship and we didn't have sex until later on and I wanted to make things appropriate but now she calls me a pedophile and groomer. I've had enough. She needs to know that I have lawyers monitoring everything that she says and if she decides to upload things about me, she will be put in jail. I have encriminating evidence. What she has about me proves nothing because we were in a loving relationship. I'm not trying to be mean. I'm trying to make sure we both go our seperate ways.

I talked to a Californian criminal defense lawyer and your daughter cannot charge me for statutory rape because it has been over 5 years since we started our relationship and there was never a problem then. However, I can charge her for extortion and blackmail right now and it's my last resort but I will do it if

Here Lex lies to my mom over text, telling her he did not have sex with me until I was of age. And then Lex backhandedly admits he DID have sex with me as a minor by saying the crime of statutory rape is expired.

9:00

Lex

She is going crazy at me. Remember, is she posts anything, I will sue her and she will go to jail. She is already getting sent a cease and desist letter within the week. I would advise her to stop before it gets worse and I have the police called on her.

If she posts anything*

Mom

How did you pay her for her blackmailing? Was it by PayPal? Keep those records.

Yes I have it all on PayPal

Read 10:16 PM

For the crime of extortion(blackmailing) she can be charged with under the California penal code law 524 PC. If it is charged as a misdemeanor, then the conviction will land her one year in jail and she will have to pay $10,000 fine.
If she is charged as a felony,which is more serious, she could spend up to three years in a California state prison and be fined $10,000

I just call her and she said , everything is been good between Lex and me , I don't know why he said all this, I m not said anything about him or post anything about

iMessage

Here Lex scares my mom by threatening her and saying he will call the police on me. Lex also tells his mom that he has Paypal payments proving he was extorted by me, but it proves that he was sending me hush money.

Lex

Why is your daughter threatening to post things online?

I'm not doing anything to your daughter

Why is she doing this?

Have I not been nice to her throughout this entire process?

Tell her to stop whatever she is doing. I stopped, why can't she not just let this go when I have done so much for her up until this point.

Call her in the morning please before she regrets doing this. This is absurd. I literally just wanted things to stop. Why is she being destructive right now?

I did so much for your daughter

And she is going to do this to me

9:01

Lex

Tell your daughter to stop immediately. I have stopped and listened to you, let her stop now. I'm not trying to cause anymore problems so why is she?

Call your daughter as soon as you wake up. I've been getting panic attacks from all this anxiety your daughter is putting me through. You need to tell her to STOP. This will ruin both of our lives. She needs to stop making things public, this will help NEITHER of us.

She can contact me if she wants to help things stop. There's no clause there that says that she can't. She is just trying to make things worse by publicly posting things. If she does this, this will ruin both of our lives and I will be showing public evidence of everything. You don't want your daughter to go through this. I don't want to go through this.

I listened to you when you told me to stop. You should do the same.

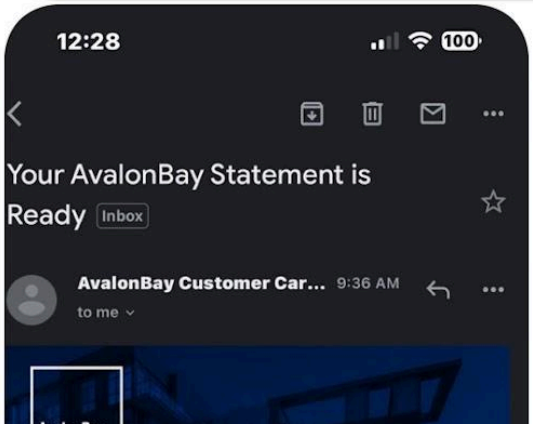
You can pay for your daughters monthly rent now



Here is Lex contacting my mom, after I made a tweet about wanting to get my story out. He is commanding my mom to do things in his favor, and trying to control her. Lex knew he was guilty and he was trying very hard to keep this out of the public eye by threatening legality.

Lex

Hello, this is the last time I will message you. Your daughter is calling up a brigade of people to try and defame me by spreading misinformation about me online and I would appreciate if you could tell her to stop. I am done with this relationship and moving on. Please tell her to do the same, thank you.

Lex you and your friend are talking bad about her to, is not just her you to, remember 2 months ago some company post a picture of her and you and yours friend star talking bad about her, please you to stop otherwise she will not stopped

Have a great day

I have told them to stop and I was not aware of them talking badly about here again. They will never interrupt your daughter's activities ever again. If there are further problems please message me here. I am not trying to cause conflict I am trying to move past this.

Hello again, I am getting more and more accounts on Twitter telling me that I am a pedophile and groomer and that they know what I did messaging Alex. Please relay this to Reagan to tell her to stop. This person Alex had messaged me when I had made my Twitter DMs open and I had no ill intention ever with messaging a minor. Your daughter is making me suicidal and it is making me feel like I am drowning. I built my career over 10 years and I just want nothing but the best for your daughter. That's all I've ever wanted, things didn't work out but she doesn't have to do this to me. Please tell her to stop and tell her that she is spreading misinformation to other people. I feel like I'm going to die everyday with the pain your daughter is causing me. Why is she doing this can you please ask? I just want peace between us. Please ask her why

The images above show the last time Lex contacted my mom, trying to blame me for other people calling him out for being a pedophile. I didn't start any drama with Lex, he just assumed it was me because he had no one else to blame.

My mothers first language isn't English and Lex knew this. Lex sending my mother all of these extremely invasive and rude text messages with big words that were new to her, scared my mom.

Another thing I'd like to address is that I haven't made a single dime off the interaction, and instead I have been forced to relive past trauma that I have been trying so hard to run away from.

Lex has been incredibly unprofessional about this entire situation; letting himself dox me multiple times, as well as other individuals who did not ask to be apart of his mess. Even Lex's older sister was harassing me on Twitter, saying I'm doing all of this for money and because I'm broke. Saying that "Onlyfans isn't working out" for me, when your little brother is spending thousands of dollars just to talk to girls, is ironic.

Babe, you commited a crime and you're a liar. Sit down. This isn't the flex you think it is and I did not bring any of this to light. Lex was getting called out for his poor response to the Tranzit scammer, and people decided to dig up his old dirt. I happened to be brought up, and as a last resort, Lex tried to pin all of his hate to me. Accusing me of falsely raping and grooming a 17 year old that I had met when I was 20 years old. I met my friend through a coworker and shortly after meeting, we both had birthday's; causing us to then be 18 years old and 21 years old. I met this person organically and when I met him, I told him that I was dating Lex for the past 6 years of my life.

Nothing inappropriate happened, I did not seek this person out for their age, the way Lex has done to various young girls. Before meeting this person, I was fully convinced that I was going to marry Lex. I did not groom or rape anyone. These false accusations are extremely hurtful, especially coming from my own groomer and rapist.

Lex also posted confirmation of my friend being 18 in Lex's own Snapchat recording, at the end of the video around 6:15, I confirmed that my friend is 18 at the time and that Lex is 24 at the time.

The claim that Lex talked to his parents and let them decide a criminal punishment is a flat out lie. Lex has never met or contacted him or his parents. The person Lex is trying to use against me is currently 20 years old.

On top of his other lies, Lex is lying about having a lawyer at the moment who is reviewing the case. There is no case. There is no police report. Lex brought all of this to the public eye, once he was getting called out. And even then, Lex did not address any of the allegations towards him. Lex decided to try and flip false accusations on me. This is incredibly disgusting behavior from Lex. Unholy. These allegations are incredibly serious and are very life threatening. Lex has lied over and over about me, to make himself not seem like the predator he is, including him lying about me, as a child asking him out. None of these crimes Lex did against me took place in Canada.

Another thing I'd like to address is the Snapchat convo that is going around, in which Lex used it as a way to prove I was abusing him. That Snapchat conversation took place at the beginning of 2022, right before Coachella. That means that Lex had already choked me by my neck at this point.

The reason Lex seems so passive and apologetic in those texts, was because he knew I was in the right to leave him. Lex knew that I had given him years of my life prior. Lex knew that he could never come back from choking me. Lex is trying to manipulate everyone into feeling bad for him, when in reality, I told him those things because he put his hands on me and because I was tired of the mental gymnastics he was doing on me.

Anyone who knows me personally knows that I am not a mean person and that it takes A LOT for me to reach my breaking point. It took years of manipulation and abuse for me to FINALLY break free from Lex and tell him off.

Was taking the most important and formative years of my life not enough for you, Lex? Was putting your hands around my neck, twice, not enough for you? You need to lie to the public to get people to feel bad for YOU because YOU got physical with me?

Lex has taken away the most important years of my life, and now, he is trying to make it so that I do not have a good rest of my life. This fight is very important to me. Lex has been affecting my life and mental health for years. I will continue fighting to clear my name, and I will continue to post any evidence needed to prove Lex wrong.

I will never be 15 years old again. I will never have another homecoming dance. I will never have a high school relationship. I will never lose my virginity to someone I want to lose it to. All of that was taken from me by Lex.

Lex Adrian Iwan has been my longtime abuser and groomer, since I was 15 years old. Lex has permanently altered my brain chemistry and has changed the trajectory of my life. No amount of therapy will help me heal from everything I have gone through.

Going through all of this publicly has been extremely excruciating and I have never had this many eyes on me before. I never would have thought, that getting noticed by my favorite Youtuber when I was 15 years old would consume the rest of my life. I'd like to again reiterate, that I have not made a single dime off this interaction. This interaction has not benefited me at all.

I never once had intentions of ruining Lex’s career. Lex had the intention of ruining my very small, nonexistent career, in hopes of getting heat off himself. Lex is a terrible person who has no regards for anyone besides himself.

There is still so much to my story. I am unable to tell everything in detail, because of the urgency of everything. I still have so much to tell and prove. Thank you to anyone who took the time to carefully read everything. I have been going through this since I was 15 years old and it is extremely difficult to relive as an adult.

And to Lex Adrian Iwan or now Lex Adrian Chlysta, if you're reading this: Fuck you. From the bottom of my heart, I hope you rot in Hell. You have never once apologized to me for the years of damage. You have never once apologized for taking my innocence. You have never apologized for going after more young girls and trying to imprint on them, the same way you imprinted on me.

If Lex wants to continue this publicly, and continue to try and defame me, I will have no problem proving him wrong with a 3rd part.
